

Arivaca film exposition

4th

Featuring Arizona's cutting-edge independent Filmmakers !

Arivaca community center
Saturday March 7th

Time	Film Title /Director	Film Description / Info
12	Through the Wall (2009)	This film of photo-journalistic images and video, documents the proposed closing of Friendship Park at the international border in California.
12:45 pm	Wild vs Wall (2009) Director: Steev Hise (Tucson)	The documentary, "Wild Versus Wall," examines the human, animal and environmental effects of the border wall. Filmmakers will be in attendance.
1-1:45 pm	ARIVACA FILM SHORTS	Three short films made in and/or by Arivacans: Mary Scott: THE STALK (Nature). Lance Hansen: ARIVACA SKATE PARK Valerie Elson: Labryinth
1:45 pm	Amber Desert Organics (2009) Steve Ablondi (South Africa)	Inspired by natural building and organic farming in Arivaca, this documentary film provides a preview of a large scale natural building project underway in Memel, South Africa. A town not much different from Arivaca.
2:30 pm	Trouble at Hand (2008) Director: Dick Fisher (Tucson)	A creative public service announcement film about a teenager's moral dilemma in deciding the right choice when she hears of a potential crime.
2:45 pm	American Dream (2008) Dir: James Bustamante (New Mexico)	A powerful drama of a young Mexican couple trying to navigate cultural impediments and immigration laws in modern day America.
3:00 pm	Common Ground (2008) Synthetic Human Pictures (Phoenix)	In this environmental comedy, a true 'odd-couple' (the recycling wife and resource depleting husband) drive each other crazy in their daily life.
3:30 pm	FLOW—The Love of Water (2008) Director: Irena Salina	In this award winning feature documentary, the politics and business of selling water is examined. What should be free and available to every human, could soon be sold to the highest bidder. POWERFUL (90-Minutes)
Intermission: Potluck		DINNER 5:00 - 6:30 pm
EVENING EXPO - SHORTS!!		EVENING SHORTS CONTINUED.....
Shorts Begin At: 6:30pm Thru 9:45pm (with Inter-mission at 8:10 pm)	Men (Dir: Anna Griessel - Green Valley) Men are summed up in 1-minute—from a woman's perspective (comedy). Chiles (Dir: Tyrone Huff) A young mixed- race couple, meet the parents in the cultural comedy. (15-min) Tortilla (Dir: Luis Garcia) A beautifully filmed human interest story about a young Latino man in search of his mother (7-min). Yang/Yin (Trailer) Filmmaker Scott Hellon-Tucson, will show a trailer for his forthcoming psychological drama. A Line in the Sand (Trailer) Filmed in Arivaca, Director Joel Smith & James Johenning preview their border documentary.	Silent Red (Dir: Steve Bayless—Tucson) Little Red Riding Hood is re-crafted in this gothic thriller (4-min). Drain (Dir: Stephen Krystek—Phoenix) In this drama two men find their way through the mean streets of Phoenix. A well-made film from the crew of Synthetic Human Pictures. (10-min). The Outskirts of Infinity (Dir: Bart Santello, Arivaca) Shot in RUBY, Arizona, this 'avant garde' film take you on a mind blowing, time traveling journey into the ghost town, the caretaker's world (Sundog) and the abandoned mine tunnels where the bats of Ruby reside. Re-mastered version of film with new artistic elements!! RED71 (Dir: Patrick Roddy - Tucson) A beautifully filmed dark textured 74-min feature drama is about a beautiful woman named Lorraine who coaxes self-styled private eye Shane into investigating the mysterious Club 71, where people start turning up dead. DON'T MISS THIS AWESOME INDEPENDENT FILM.

Documentary Films: 12-Noon - 5:00 pm

Short indie Films: 6:30 pm - 9:45 pm

Free

See www.arivaca.net for link to website, info & more

